

TiBert le Voyageur

French-Canadian Métis Performer and Educator

Raised in a Franco-Manitoban Métis family, Rob Malo is a writer, performer, former Educational Programs Developer at the Manitoba Museum, and former Professor at the USB who loves to share his passion for history and his French-Canadian Métis heritage. Drawing on his background in interpretation and educational programming, and using storytelling, music, props, digital graphic novels, he delights students and teachers as TiBert le Voyageur.

TiBertvoyage.com

EDUCATIONAL WEBSITE

Student and teacher versions for classroom screens and tablets.

TiBertvoyage.com is completely bilingual and contains the TiBert le Voyageur digital graphic novel, video and audio resources, a teacher's manual, a student activity section, downloadable sheets, and an e-boutique that will provide teachers and students with all the practical, in-class tools to experience life in Canada during the fur trade. Each lesson plan includes a Theme, Learning Objectives, a variety of individual and group In-class Activities, Curricular Objectives, Suggested Questions, Additional Project Ideas, and activities related to Literacy and Communication.

THREE LIVE CLASSROOM WORKSHOPS TO EXPLORE

All workshops can be offered at any language level either in French or English. Limit of 40 participants for 1 hour.

THE VOYAGEUR MUSEUM - Hands-on inquiry based learning system. Over 100 artifacts displayed from the fur trade era to touch and feel!

STORYTELLING : FROM ORAL TRADITION TO PRODUCTION - The process of creating an oral story is shared, followed by the creation of a visual storyboard to produce either a graphic novel or a short play. Can be offered over multiple visits (1, 3 or 5 visits). Students work in groups to learn a new creative process. The TiBertvoyage.com educational site is used throughout this workshop!

STORIES, MUSIC AND SONGS - TiBert comes to your classroom to share traditional French songs, stories, interactive plays and furs!

Rob Malo (TiBert le Voyageur)

TiBert has been awarded two National Standards of Excellence by Interpretation Canada for both his live presentations and TiBertvoyage.com!!!
